The topic for the March Luncheon/Meeting was Terrorist & Violent Intruder Preparedness / Response - Simplifying Your Response Based on Attacker Objective Commonalities. Topic was given by the President of Strategos, Vaughn Baker.

Strategos was founded in 2002; its instructors have trained over 55,000 law enforcement & military members, church leaders, school faculty & staff, security professionals, and business professionals. Strategos primarily conducts training within the United States, but has also conducted training in 15 foreign countries. In recent years Strategos has grown into a full service protection, consultation, and training company offering a comprehensive list of security and protection solutions. During this growth the company has remained true to the strongly held belief in both training and protection, “Capability Breeds Humility”.

The meeting was concluded at 1:00 pm.
